Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity
c/o Michael Bonene, Past Chapter President
Regarding Case Number: 2018028401

To the members Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity:

After further review of the outcome following the interim suspension hearing held on July 13, 2018, I hereby inform you that you will remain on organizational interim suspension until such time that an organizational conduct hearing is convened to address the alleged incident.

As an exception to this decision, Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity is permitted to participate in the following while under interim suspension, as long as the following events are alcohol free:

- Intramural competitions
- Philanthropic and service projects
- Conferences
- Campus fundraisers
- Regularly scheduled business meetings

Any other activities other than those listed above are prohibited under the terms of the organizational interim suspension without express permission, in advance from the Director, Office of Student Conduct. Failure to comply with the modified interim suspension, will result in a full reinstatement of the interim suspension status as outlined in the July 13, 2018 letter.
